The News.

The latest despatches from Trinity Bay report the Atlantic Telegraph Cable "all right," and messages from the other side may be looked for to-day. The success of this grand enterprize has made a profound sensation all over our Continent, and will, no doubt, excite a similar feeling in all parts of the civilized world.

The U. P. Loan of five millions has been disposed of at a premium of five per cent.

The Hatters' Bank, of Bristol, Connecticut, was robbed of $98 000, mostly its own bills, on Friday last. The public are cautioned against taking any of the money.

The Eastern markets, yesterday, show another advance, with active demand, for Flour and Wheat. In our own market, with light receipts and a brisk enquiry, there were considerable transactions at slightly improved rates. Prices still tend upwards.

We had another very warm day, yesterday, relieved, towards afternoon, by a light shower, which seemed to cool the heated atmosphere quite effectually.

Our Public Schools.

Some two weeks ago we had occasion to animadvert upon a series of very absurd resolutions, adopted by our Board of Aldermen in relation to the Public Schools. Those City Fathers, it will be remembered, presented the High School as a nuisance that ought to be abated; gravely proposed to sell the expensive furniture in the Seventh and other Ward Schools; and suggested other and similar reforms in School matters. The press and the public, not impressed with the wisdom of these proceedings, were prompt to censure them. No one, indeed, out of the Board of Aldermen, was found to uphold them. It was very clear that the proposed crusade against our Public Schools was as unpopular, as it was unwise.

Whatever other faults our City Fathers may have, they are neither blind, nor deaf; and these indications were not lost upon them. As our readers have already learnt from the proceedings of Monday, the Board of Aldermen made haste to repair their error, and retrace their steps.—By an unanimous vote—even Ald. PHELPS conquering his prejudices—they adopted all the reccomendations of the Joint Committee on Schools, looking to the much-needed repairs, and improvement of several of our present School buildings; and in the construction, as speedily as may be, of others in the Fifth, Eighth and Ninth Wards. As we censured the Aldermen for their unwise resolutions, two weeks ago, we can do no less than give them credit for their wise action on Monday.

THE LA CROSSE LAND GRANT.—The New York Herald of August 7th says:

Governor Randall, of Wisconsin, having refused to certify to the construction of twenty continuous miles of road by the Milwaukee and La Crosse Railroad Company because that Company did not commence work at Madison, the President, Mr. Stanton, appealed to the Secretary, Thompson, to ascertain whether there was any way of obtaining titles to the lands without the certificate of the Governor. The Secretary, having examined all the facts, decides that the department has no power to make titles to the Company except through the state, and further, that if the requisitions of the act making the grant be not complied with in a reasonable time, the government will be obliged to re-open the reserved grant lands for the benefit of the public. This decision is of course applicable to all grants of lands in aid of internal improvements.

We expect to see both the News and Wisconsin denounce this decision of the Secretary as outrageous, high handed and designedly hostile to Milwaukee.

ST. LOUIS ELECTION—OFFICIAL.—On the official count Blair is only defeated by 420 votes. The count stands:

Barret (National)	7,051
Blair, (Free Soil)	6,631
Breckenridge, (American)	5,088

Free Soil and American cast 12,299 votes, being 5,142 majority over the Administration pro-slavery candidate, and this, too, after counting over two thousand fraudulent votes cast for Barret.

For the office of School Superintendent, the Americans put up no candidate, but left each voter to choose between the candidates of the other parties. The result was as follows:

John G. Provine, (Free Soil)	9 948
W. B. Starke, (National Democrat)	7,124
Free Soil majority	2,820

National Greeting through the Great Cable.

The New York Tribune of the 7th says:

Mr. Peter Cooper, President of the Atlantic Telegraph Company, informed us yesterday that on Thursday he telegraphed to Mr. Field, stating that he was very anxious to know if the Agamemnon had laid her end of the cable. Mr. Field replied that the cable had been successfully laid, and signals were passing uninterruptedly through its entire length. Mr. Cooper states that it was arranged that no message should be transmitted, either way, until the Queen's greeting had been sent to Mr. Buchanan. We must therefore wait for the receipt of that message before we can know anything more definite about the success of the enterprise. Mr. Cooper himself has no doubt of the fact that the cable has been successfully laid to both coasts, as telegraphed by Mr. Field.

ACCIDENTAL DROWNING.—Mr. D S. WATSON, writing to the News under date of Genesee, Aug. 8th, says:

The body of a young man by the name of Alfred B. Cooper, formerly from Greenfield, Milwaukee county, was found dead in a small pond on section 8, in this town, on the evening of the 7th inst. Cooper left the place where he was at work on Saturday evening, July 31st, and was not seen until he was discovered in the water.—He was between 18 and 20 years of age; his relatives reside in the town of Greenfield. Verdict of the jury on the inquest, "accidental drowning."

DESPATCH FROM CAPTAIN HUDSON, OF THE NIAGARA, TO HIS FAMILY.—The following despatch has been received from Captain Hudson, to his family:

TRINITY BAY, Aug. 5, '58.

God has been with us. The telegraph cable is laid without accident, and to Him be all glory. We are all well. Yours, affectionately.

WM. L. HUDSON.

Weather and Crops.

EAGLE, Aug. 10.

We have had here, for a few days past, what I suppose philosophers would call a "heated term." Last Thursday the thermometer ranged as high as 98° above zero, in the shade. Friday the mercury arose as high as 103, and ranged at 100 for two hours. On Saturday it arose to 100, and during the last two days has ranged from 92 to 98. Yesterday evening there was a change in the atmosphere and it is now quite comfortable. We have probably just passed the climax of our warm weather for this season.

The farmers in this vicinity have mostly gathered in their grain. Wheat will not yield as it did last year, and the general estimate is, that we shall have only about two-thirds of an average crop. It has suffered considerably from blight and rust. Oats are not quite an average crop. Corn and Potatoes look well, and from present prospects, will yield abundantly.—The principal crop of our farmers is Wheat, and unless prices range higher, they will feel poorer this Fall than ever.

H. F. POTTER.

From the Toronto Globe, Aug. 2.

Harvest and Business Prospects in Canada.

The past week has been one of considerable suspense and anxiety to those interested in trade, in consequence of the rumors respecting the wheat crop, the harvesting of which is just commencing. Were we to give credence to half the unfavorable statements that are made, we should almost anticipate a famine; and it is this very spirit of exaggeration which is so prevalent that leads us to hope that, after all, the harvest will turn out well. In some localities there is no doubt but that the rust has done much damage, and that in others the effects of the weevil and midge are painfully manifest, yet taking the Province as a whole, we are of opinion that the crop will be better than is generally anticipated. Even a partial failure is much to be deplored; for, however large the yield of the present crop, even should it be a successful one, it must necessarily fall far short of the amount required to settle the balance of trade against us. The fact is, it will take years of the most extended production, and the closest economy, to make matters at all easy with us, while it is a matter of conjecture to many who are well calculated to judge, whether we will, within even the next ten or twelve years, experience the same prosperity and plentitude of money which we enjoyed a year ago.

The cause of this happy state of affairs was the influx of foreign money in the construction of public works, &c., and the confidence and inflation which was thus inspired. But upon the withdrawal of this foreign aid, and a continual drain on the Province in the shape of interest, the value of property came down to its legitimate level; the banks, unable to keep out a circulation, and fearing each other, contracted the currency, and in the space of six months the country was precipitated from an apparent prosperity to a state almost bordering on bankruptcy. It is a subject of remark that in all agricultural countries there is necessarily never an abundance of money, and from all indications there is nothing to show that Canada will be an exception. Yet this need not be a barrier to material prosperity. It is a result of the period of inflation which we have experienced that extravagance and speculation should prevail; but these are checked, and although it may be hard to practice economy and obtain a living or amass wealth by labor alone, necessity compels it, as through this process only can we hope for the restoration of prosperous years.

Horrible Death.

Mr. John Hockaday, of Warrensburgh, a harness maker, early on Sunday morning, July 4, went into his bedroom where his wife lay, and in a hurried and embarrassed manner, with his hand placed upon his throat, endeavored to tell his wife something with incoherent exclamations, and in a moment hastily turned around two or three times and quickly passed into an adjoining room. His wife, seeing he was in distress, immediately sprang from the bed and followed him, just in time to see him lie down on the floor and, after one or two faint efforts at breathing, died.

As too often with sudden deaths, his death was attributed to disease of the heart, but a post-mortem examination revealed the fact that the deceased had choked to death. A piece of partially chewed beef, of the size of half a large hen's egg, was found in the windpipe, which the deceased had been chewing, and probably upon some sudden start had been drawn through the larynx into the windpipe, from whence its size prevented it being ejected by any means in the sufferer's control.

Mr. Hockaday was an Englishman. A few years since he, with his family, came to Warrensburgh, poor and a stranger. By persevering industry and strict integrity he was fast gaining property and friends. His loss will be severely felt by the community in which he lived; and most by those to whom the best known, especially by his brother Odd Fellows, of whose order he had been for some time an active, efficient and ever-ready member. To his family his sudden death comes with a stunning blow. His wife, a feeble woman, is almost distracted in consequence.

Destroying Eighty-one Thousand Dollars in Spite his Son.

A correspondent of the London Times relates the following story—if story it is—locating the parties in Vienna. Strange things happen frequently in the "old country:"

A few days ago a Baron Silbertstein died here, and after his death no money was found in his house, though he had always passed for a wealthy man. Inquiries were made by his heir, and on its being discovered that a banker had paid into his hands the sum of 170,000 florins but a few days before his death, his valet was arrested by a policeman on suspicion of having made away with the money.

As the man said that his master left his bed a couple of days before he died, in order to burn some papers in the stove, the bedroom was searched. Nothing but the remains of documents were found, and the servant was kept in custody until it occurred to some one that it might be as well to examine the other stoves. The examination was made, and the numerous remains of bank notes, of 1000 florins each, proved the innocence of the valet and destructiveness of his master.

The Baron, who was divorced from his wife, often expressed doubts about the legitimacy of his only son; and in order that he should profit as little as possible by his death, he burned bank notes to the value of 170,000 florins [$15,300]. When the door of the stove was opened, the word "thousand" was distinctly visible on many of the consumed notes, which, of course, fell to pieces when touched.

THE AMERICAN STAPLE.—THE EGG CROP.—It is estimated that there are 103,600,000 laying fowls in the country, of which 50,000,000 lay one egg a day throughout the year. This would give the annual crop of 18,250,000,000 eggs, and these at eight cents a dozen, would be worth $121,666,666!—Buffalo Express, August 4.

The cotton crop of the United States, estimated at the ratio board, according to the census of 1850, amounted to $78,264,928.

Estimated at the same point—that is, according to New York prices to-day—the egg crop of the United States would amount to 259,011,666, or twice as much as the cotton, tobacco, rice, hay, hemp and sugar crops of the slave States put together.

Adopting the estimate of the Buffalo print, the average of eggs consumed by each inhabitant of the United States each day is about two.—N. Y. Eve. Post.

FIRST DISPATCH BY THE CABLE.—President Buchanan will (probably) send the following dispatch to-day to Queen Victoria:

WHITE HOUSE, WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 6.

To Her Gracious Majesty, Victoria, Queen of Great Britain:

The Cable is all right. If your next is a boy please call him after me. JAMES BUCHANAN.

To which Her Majesty will reply as follows:

To His Excellency, James Buchanan, President of the United States.

Oh you naughty man! What do you know about such dreadful things? VICTORIA.

AMERICAN CELEBRATION IN BERLIN.—The 4th of July was handsomely celebrated at the residence of Gov. Wright, the American Minister at Berlin, Prussia, and among those who participated in it was the venerable Baron Humboldt. He came from Potsdam at the special request of Gov Wright, and made a very interesting speech to the assemblage present. Speeches were also made by Governor Wright, Captain Pendergrast, U. S. Navy, and Mr. Edward S. Jacques, of Virginia.

DESTRUCTIVE FIRE—BURNING OF HIGBY'S WAREHOUSE.—Between 1 and 2 o'clock, yesterday morning, an alarm of fire was sounded for the Fourth Ward, and almost immediately afterwards the bright glare in the midnight sky gave token of a threatening conflagration. It proved to be HIGBY'S large frame Warehouse, standing in close proximity to the Freight Depots of the Watertown and Mississippi Rail Roads, and of the Western Transportation Company, as well as to several well-stocked lumber yards. The alarm quickly called out our Fire Department, and they hurried to the scene of action at a rattling pace. The river afforded plenty of water, and the engines, judiciously stationed, soon had several powerful streams playing upon the rising flames. The heat from the burning building was intense, and for some time much apprehension was felt that the lofty piles of lumber immediately adjoining the warehouse on the north, would take fire. Fortunately the night was calm, no wind blowing, and the Firemen worked with a will; and by half-past 2 o'clock, they had fairly got the fire under. It required, however, another hour of hard work to put it out.

The warehouse, with its contents, was pretty much destroyed, though much of the Flour was got out. About 5,000 bushels of Wheat, some threshing machines and other traps, were burned with the building. The following were the insurances:

On building, $4,000, in the Ætna of Hartford, W. HENRY HOLLAND, Agent. On contents, $8,500 in the Hartford, of Hartford, and $2,500 in the North-Western, W. H. HOLLAND, Agent; $3,000 in the Merchants, and Traders, Milwaukee, $2,000 in the Metropolitan, N. Y., and $2000 in the Phoenix, Brooklyn, C. J. CARY, Agent. The loss on the building exceeds the insurance; but on the contents the loss is not over $4,000, and, of course, amply covered by insurance. Much credit is due to our Fire Department for their promptness and efficiency on the occasion. But for their well directed efforts the destruction of property would have been far greater.

The fire is supposed to have been set by design, as no other cause is known for it. We have heard it suggested, however, that it may have taken fire from the sparks of a Propeller, which lay at HIGBY'S dock during the previous evening.

POST MORTEM EXAMINATION.—Yesterday morning a post mortem examination was made upon the body of the woman, MARY MURPHY, whose sudden death we gave an account of yesterday, by Dr. TYRRELL, City Physician. The examination showed, as had been believed by many, that the deceased came to her death by sunstroke. It was not deemed necessary to hold an inquest, and the body was properly interred by the County.

The deceased woman was about thirty years of age. Her history is rather a sad one. She has resided in this city some five or six years, during the greater part of which time she has led an abandoned life. At the time of her death she was living with a notorious woman known as "Old Sib." Some years ago her husband died, leaving her with three children in rather reduced circumstances. Shortly after his death some vile wretch induced the poverty stricken mother to live with him on pretence of marriage. His end accomplished, he left the unfortunate woman branded with infamy and disgrace. The first downward step taken, there was no hope to retrace it. Her children were shamefully neglected, and left helpless until they were taken charge of by some kind person and placed in the Orphan Asylum. From that time she carried on a life of sin and wretchedness, of which she has been so suddenly deprived. How little is known by many of the good people of this fair city, what a deal of crime is committed within its limited boundary, and how much wretchedness and suffering is borne without a murmur. But so it is everywhere; we are all inclined to look upon the sunny side of humanity and overlook that which is not pleasant to think of. Were we equally disposed to become acquainted with the crime and sin of the world, what a horrible picture might not be revealed.

ATTEMPT OF A THIEF TO ESCAPE.—The thief Carrigen, whose case we noticed yesterday in our police court report, made a desperate attempt to get away from the officer who arrested him, when within a few rods of the station house door, on Sunday night.

Policeman MCCARTHY arrested him at a dance house in the Third Ward for stealing a coat. He first denied the theft but afterwards acknowledged that he took the coat, and said he was drunk when he did so. He brought the policeman to where he had secreted the stolen garment, and gave it to him. The latter was then conducting Carrigan to the lock-up, and had got to the corner of Mason and Main streets, when the fellow suddenly bid the policeman good night and took to his heels down Mason street. A spirited chase of course ensued, but though swifter than the officer on the start, the fugitive lacked the "bottom" to keep up the run, and he was soon recaptured and secured beyond the possibility of escape.

HANDSOMELY DONE!—Our faithful and excellent Chief Engineer, DANIEL SCHULTZ, received yesterday a note from J. J. TALLMADGE, Esq., Agent of the Western Transportation Company, complimenting our Fire Department upon the efficiency displayed by them, at the fire yesterday morning, and enclosing a check for $200, as a token of his appreciation of the good work done by them in preventing the spread of the flames. This compliment is not less gratifying to our Fire Department, than it is creditable to Mr. TALLMADGE and the Company whom he represents. The officers of the Department are called together, this evening, to take action on the matter.

HONORABLE.—Our neighbor of the News, with a degree of frankness, in wide contrast with the pettifogging of the Wisconsin, acknowledges the justice of our complaint against the practice of appropriating commercial reports without credit. He excuses himself upon good grounds, and promises to be independent in future, and get up his own reports. Here's our hand, neighbor!

ARREST OF A "CONFIDENCE MAN," AND BOGUS MONEY DEALER.—Last Wednesday a chap put up at the Walker House, calling himself Wm. F. ORIS, and purporting to be in search of a returned California friend. He handed the clerk a bundle marked "$600," told him that it contained that amount of money, and not wishing to carry it upon his person desired that it should be kept in the safe until he called for it. Mr. ORIS had rather a simple and frank appearance, and not doubting but that all was right, the clerk took the package of money (?) and stowed it away carefully, in the safe. Before the new visitor had been long in town, BECK got his eye upon him, and suspecting that the fellow was engaged in some illigitimate business, he detailed detective GARLICK to keep a watch upon the movements of the suspected individual. GARLICK went about the business with a will, as the success which crowned his efforts plainly shows.

One of the first things Mr. ORIS did, after establishing himself at the Walker House, was to become acquainted with the police, by visiting the Police Court every morning for several days. The officer worked industriously to become acquainted with the new-comer, and in doing this he found little trouble. The latter let the detective into his confidence very readily, thinking perhaps that he had his claws upon a dupe. He immediately imparted to the attentive ear of officer GARLICK the fact that he had six hundred dollars in the safe at the Walker House, and inquired with assumed anxiety, and wonderful simplicity as to what Bank would be the safest for him to deposit his money in. GARLICK always says a good word for his friends, so he told the confidential stranger that either the Farmers & Millers, or the State Bank, would be perfectly safe. At this stage of the proceedings, the sharp detective plainly smell a rat, and he encouraged the newly made acquaintance in letting him into his confidence.

One of the warm days towards the close of last week, ORIS invited the officer to go and take a bath with him at the swimming school up on the river, which of course was accepted. On returning from the bathing place, the moneyed man happened to want a little change, and as he had left some $30, besides the $600 package, at the Walker, he requested GARLICK to lend him a trifle until they got back, but the latter happened to be out of funds just then, and was sorry (?) he could not accommodate his friend.

GARLICK took the first opportunity to converse with the clerk of the Walker House, and after stating his suspicions, it was agreed to take a peep at the contents of the "$600" package. The treasure was drawn from the safe and opened with great care, when behold, a bundle of pieces of old newspaper, cut into shape of bank bills, met the astonished gaze of the duped clerk. The book-keeper just then remembered that he had loaned ORIS a small sum on the strength of the deposit. The consequence of this revelation was that upon Mr. ORIS' next appearance at the Walker House, he was presented with a bill for board, &c., and not having the needful, and his game exploded, he received most emphatic orders to leave. GARLICK still kept upon his track, and finally traced the passage of two counterfeit bills upon the fellow, for which he arrested him on Monday. Upon searching the confidence man, some $16 in worthless money were found in his possession. He was arraigned in the Police Court yesterday morning, and upon waiving an examination, was committed in default of bail to await the action of the Grand Jury.

SALE OF LOTS—JUDGE SMITH'S ADDITION.—Don't forget the auction sale, this morning, by OGDEN & WALL, of desirable lots in Judge SMITH'S Addition, in Milwaukee. Here is a first rate chance to lay out a little money to great advantage. In these hard times real estate may be bought at a price, which, a year or two hence, will seem cheap enough. The terms on which these lots are offered are very easy, and they are located in one of the healthiest and pleasantest parts of our city.

FOR SAN FRANCISCO AND THE GOLD DIGGINGS.—In our advertising columns will be found the announcement that the well-known and staunch Ocean Steamers, Hermann and Washington, will sail from New York shortly, direct for San Francisco and the Frazer River Gold Diggings. This is a grand chance for adventurers bound to the Pacific and the new El Dorado. The route is vastly preferable to that over land, or across the Isthmus, there being no danger of catching the Panama fever. Capt. HENRY RANDALL, the Agent of the line will be remembered by many of our readers as long connected with our Lake Steamers.

PIC-NIC.—The teachers and scholars connected with the Sabbath School of the Summerfield M. E. Church, of this city, will hold their annual pic nic on Thursday next, the 12th inst., in the grove at the North Point, beyond the residence of JOHN LOCKWOOD, Esq. The music will be furnished by Merrill's Cornet Band. The procession will form at the Church, corner of Van Buren and Biddle streets, at 9 o'clock, A. M.—Should the weather be unpropitious, the occasion will be deferred until Friday. Friends of the Church and School are cordially invited to be present.

SHOCKING!—That delicate "Family Newspaper," the Wisconsin, which has been lecturing its city contemporaries for the naughty things they have published, as despatches from Queen VICTORIA and President BUCHANAN, copies in its yesterday's issue, two, from the N. Y. Evening Post, which are "as broad as they are long."

SPALDING AND ROGERS' GRAND CIRCUS.—Mr VANORDEN, the popular Agent of this superior Circus, who has been in our city for a day or two past, has arranged to have the exhibition on the vacant lot, corner of Main and Huron Streets, immediately in rear of Excelsior Block. This is an excellent locality for the purpose. Tickets for the circus are for sale at HARRY BINGHAM'S Light Guard Saloon, Huron Street.

MASON STREET SIDEWALK.—Editors Sentinel—The sidewalk on the South side of St. Paul's Church, has been obstructed, and in a bad state, for the past eight weeks; will the Building Committee, or Street Commissioner's direct their attention to it. The complaints of the public about it are loud, and ought to be attended to.

Aug. 10th, 1858. MASON STREET.

THE HARVEST MOON.—This year the harvest moon occurs in August, rising for six consecutive nights at nearly the same hour. The July moon has also been of unusual interest, and scarcely inferior to the harvest moon, in those particulars which give to the latter its distinction, being retarded only 32½ minutes in the average of six risings after the full moon.

RENTS, LEASES, &c.—J. S. FILLMORE has a good first rate house on Jefferson street, near Biddle street, Seventh Ward; rent $250 per year. Also a good house on Biddle street near Cass street, Seventh Ward; rent $400 per year. Also a nice neat house on Michigan street near Jackson street; rent $800 per year. Also some first rate city lots to lease for three, five or ten years.

BOARD OF SCHOOL COMMISSIONERS.—A special meeting of the Board of School Commissioners will be held at their room, in Excelsior Block, this (Wednesday) evening, at half-past 7 o'clock. As business of importance is to be transacted, a full attendance of the members is desired.

MILWAUKEE TO A STRANGER.—A correspondent of the Grand Rapids Enquirer, who has recently visited Milwaukee, records his impressions of our beautiful City, in a letter, from which we take the following extracts:

The general appearance of the city is remarkably good—much better than I expected—and is undoubtedly superior to any in the North-West. The streets are wide and well laid out, the principal ones being paved with stone, having good brick side walks. The buildings are mostly of a light colored brick, which are, I think, peculiar to the Western country. They give an edifice an air of lightness, of which those of a darker color are destitute. The style is varied and very good, as their owners evidently had an eye not only to the beautiful, but to the substantial and convenient. They reflect great credit on the taste of the citizens, the artistical talent of the architects, and the mechanical skill of the builders. * * * * *

In summing up, my opinion is, that Milwaukee is one of the most handsome as well as enterprising cities in the United States. Even to day, in point of magnificent dwellings, handsome grounds, splendid public buildings, excellent streets and beautiful scenery, she is hard to beat. I do not say this from hearsay, nor from anything I may have read, but from actual observation. In my rambles I have visited the principal cities of the East—Boston, Lowell, Worcester, Springfield, New York, Albany, and various others, also Columbus, Cincinnati, Louisville, St. Louis and Chicago; and I hesitate not to say that if the present style and magnificent plans are carried out, Milwaukee will be in the first row, when the finest cities of the United States are classed according to their merits.

MILWAUKEE, WATERTOWN & BARABOO VALLEY R. R.—We stated, a few days since, that a survey had been made for the extension of the M., W. & B. V. R. R. to this city, on the town line, intersecting the Beloit road some three miles out of the city. We are now credibly informed that another and very favorable route has been run, commencing at the Mil. & Miss. R. R. depot, passing near WILLIAMS' brick yard, about one-fourth of a mile south of the County Poor House, thence to UNDERWOOD'S crossing and the Junction. This route is nearly an air line, of easy grade, and withall a very desirable one.—The Company intend to put one of the two routes under contract immediately, and press the work to an early completion.

MILWAUKEE LIGHT GUARD.—At a regular meeting of the company, held Monday evening, August 9th, the following resolution was offered:

Resolved, That the Constitution and By-Laws of the M. L. G. be altered and amended by abolishing the office of Financial Secretary; and that the Treasurer of the company perform the duties of said Financial Secretary.

THE NEW HOTEL.—There seems to be considerable doubt in the minds of some of our citizens in regard to the authenticity of a paragraph which we published a day or two since, relative to the new hotel project, on Spring street, and a belief that it was only gotten up as a puff for the Fourth Ward. We will only say that in publishing the paragraph alluded to, we supposed that we were giving our readers an item of important news, at the earliest moment, as we always endeavor to do. The information was obtained from the lips of a gentleman of the Fourth Ward, who professed to know all about the matter, and who is a man of truth and veracity. Upon further enquiry we were assured that the information was correct, and we are permitted to refer any persons in doubt for further particulars to Mr. BIRCHARD, Mr. WILLIAMS or the Messrs. "I HAVE SAVED $500."—This remark, made by a gentleman the other day, whose strength had been restored by a bottle of Prof. DeBRATH'S, genuine, "ELECTRO OIL," would apply to thousands, especially to the man or woman who depends on self-exertion for support. No person can save money who is half the time sick, lame, rheumatic, and suffering from pain; but if timely caution were used, and before consumption becomes sealed from cold and exposure, the application of this "Electric Oil" should be made, hundreds of dollars would be saved, and life would be made tolerable also. Ask Mark Green, Esq., 49 Marshall street, Philadelphia, and hundreds more who have been cured. N. B.—No charge for advice.

The Atlantic Telegraph Line Ready for Use.

HALIFAX, Aug. 10.

We have assurances from Trinity Bay to-day, that the recording instruments connected with the Atlantic Cable were expected to be in perfect order this evening, and if the expectations of the electricians have been realized, it is thought probable that the Queen's message to the President will come over the wires this evening or to-morrow forenoon.

Address of the Executive Council of New Foundland to Mr. Field.

ST. JOHNS, N. F., Aug. 10.

The following is a copy of the address presented to Mr. Field to-day:

To CYRUS W. FIELD, Esq., General Manager of the Atlantic Company:—We the Executive Council of New Foundland, have great and sincere pleasure in offering you our congratulations on the success of the grand project of the landing of the Telegraph Cable. Intimately acquainted as we have been with the enterprise which has distinguished you from the commencement of the great work of telegraphic connection between the Old and New World, and feeling that under Providence this triumph is mainly due to your well directed and indomitable exertions, we desire to express to you our high appreciation of your services to the cause of the world's progress, and our sympathy in these feelings inseparable from the present proud result.

We recognise in the achievement, the creation of new bonds of commerce and social union between the people of the two great nations thus marvellously connected, and we are gratified to remember the aid contributed towards this most important object by the colony of Newfoundland, and the privileges conferred upon the company you represent, we sincerely trust the best expectations of the results of the enterprise to all the interests associated with it may be abundantly fulfilled, and that you, sir, individually, may reap from it ample recompense for your many labors and sacrifices, from its conception to the present hour. On behalf of the Executive Council of Newfoundland. (Signed,)

LAURENCE O'BRIEN, Pres't.

MR. FIELD'S REPLY.

To the honorable Executive Council of Newfoundland:—President and Honorable Gentlemen, I thank you with all my heart for the cordial manifestations of your good will; there is, however, nothing new to me in the present tone of feeling. Upwards of 4 years ago, I first laid before the Legislature of the colony, the plan of uniting the two Continents by means of the telegraph.

The communications received were readily countenanced, and in the charter of incorporation then passed was unfolded the whole view which has now arrived at its final accomplishment. The terms of that charter were liberal and encouraging, but had your councils been guided by a different spirit the project would have been abandoned, and years perhaps might have passed without witnessing this happy union of the two worlds, with the beneficient consequences it is destined to diffuse. The exclusive privileges conferred by the Colony to the New York & London Telegraph Co., made her the subject of severe criticism, and it is therefore with satisfaction I observe the approving terms in which you refer to them.

Every enlightened country recognizes a right of property in those works where service, or skill, or capital has been interested, that protection is necessary to throw out the efforts of men in new works of public utility, for who would sow if he could not reap? And while the individual has his reward, society is the gainer by his labor.—In the exclusive privileges you have conferred on the Co. I represent, the principle of copyright only is involved, and I think there can now be no doubt but that your policy has conduced to the interest of the colony, for I confidently trust that the future may be productive of much benefit to your people from the great work, which, from the begining to the present time, has had your consistent and liberal support.

I shall look with peculiar pleasure on the advantages resulting in the telegraph connection of the new and old world, and shall be ever ready to promote your views of advancement by all the means in my power. [Signed]

The New Avenue of Travel.

In a very few weeks a new thoroughfare, which is destined to become the principal line of traffic and travel between the Atlantic and the North-western States, will be completed and opened for business. We refer to the Detroit and Milwaukee and the La Crosse and Milwaukee Railways, which are both now rapidly approaching completion. The former road is expected to be finished, and in running order, through to Grand Haven, our opposite neighbor on Lake Michigan, by the first of October. The La Crosse road will be completed by, or before the same date. Indeed, the track will be laid and the cars will run into La Crosse, before the present month of August expires, but it will require a month more to finish the tunnel.

There remains no doubt, however, that both roads will be opened through within less than sixty days, and in view of the simultaneous consummation of two great enterprises of such vital importance to the interests of our city, there should, we think, be some fitting public demonstrations here in honor of the event. No man who looks at the map of the Nothern section of our confederacy can fail to see the advantageous position which Milwaukee will occupy, as the principal point of embarkation and debarkation on this grand national highway; and no point on the whole line has better reason to rejoice over its completion. Our Detroit neighbors, who will be made very near to us by this new route, will heartily join with us in celebrating its success, while our fellow citizens of La Cresse, who are to be large sharers in the resulting benefits, will also gladly participate in the festivities proper to the occasion.

Gov. Randall and the Land Grant.

A correspondent of the Wisconsin, whom the News is prompt to endorse, publishes a long communication in that paper, assailing Gov. RANDALL for his action in the Land Grant matter, and closing with the following proposal:

The attention of our citizens ought to be aroused in this matter, and for one I would suggest that a public meeting should be called to give expression to the views of all classes of our people, without distinction of party, in reference to the unwarrantable, unjust and outrageous course pursued by RANDALL towards this city.—RANDALL may be acting from what he conceives the best motives. I will not impugn them; but whatever they may be, one thing is certain, that his present efforts tend directly to the ruin of the best interests of Milwaukee. The public opinion of Milwaukee is entirely with the Wisconsin in this matter, and it needs but one emphatic expression of that opinion to produce perfect harmony upon that subject among all classes.

This counsel is as unwise, as the course of the News and Wisconsin has been injudicious.—Milwaukee could not do a more foolish thing than the one here recommended. Its only effect would be to array against our city the "public opinion" of the whole State, and to deal a fatal blow to "the best interests of Milwaukee." The News and Wisconsin are at liberty, of course, to take up the cudgels for the La Crosse Company against the Governor; but our city cannot afford to engage in any such senseless and objectless crusade. Nor does "public opinion" here favor the project.

CREDIT TO WHOM CREDIT IS DUE.—The herculean task of getting the Madison Patriot on the right track, politically, has been successfully accomplished by the well-known "Orator of the West," who is running the Patriot, in the absence of S. PUMP CARPENTER. Mr. ROSS thus credits himself with this remarkable achievement:

"While to Cyrus W. Field belongs the sublime distinction of first announcing the successful laying of the Telegraphic Cable, to us must be credited the honorable achievement of bringing the Madison Patriot right side up on the Democratic track.

The Patriot, in its late course, was constantly liable to be preyed upon by the designing and corrupt of both parties. We now propose to adhere faithfully to the choice of a majority of of any City, County, State, or National Democratic Convention, no matter who it may be."

There is an "elegant simplicity" pervading this paragraph which will strike the most careless observer.

M. & M. RAILROAD.—The New York Tribune of August 6th, in its money article, contains the following item:

The earnings for July of the Milwaukee and Mississippi Railroad have exceeded the expectations of its friends. They are reported to be from $100,000 to $108,000; last year, $91,864. The holders of coupons of the Farm Mortgage and Income Bonds are funding them rapidly, taking the Third Mortgage Bonds at par.

For the Sentinel.

The Police Department.

MR. EDITOR:—Now that the subject of an increase of pay of the Police force is before the Common Council, I desire to say a word or two respecting it. Though a Democrat, I was one those, who, at our last Spring election, co-operated with the "People's" party and labored actively to effect a retrenchment in our city expenditures. I believed then, and I believe now, that former administrations of our city Government had been recklessly lavish of the public moneys, and I, in common with a majority of our citizens, felt the imperative necessity of a more economical administration of the financial affairs of the city. But, Mr. Editor, I did not believe, nor do I now, that the end desired was to be accomplished by cutting down the salaries of the city officers, none of whom, in my estimation, have ever received for their services, more than their services were fairly worth. To the officers of the city is intrusted the administration of its government, and upon their activity, honesty and faithfulness must depend, to a very great extent, the success of any attempt at retrenchment and reform.

None but good men should be elected or appointed to office, and they should be adequately paid for the performance of their duties. This principle applies to all the officers of the city, but to none with more force than to those connected with the Police Department. Our Policemen are faithful, honest and energetic. By reason of their admirable performance of their arduous duties, our city enjoys an immunity from crime and disorder, which contrasts very strongly with her sister cities, both in the East and West. Few people know the peculiar hardship of a policeman's life; night and day, in all sorts of weather, and in all kinds of places, he must be ever vigilant and ever active. Scarcely a day passes without his being compelled to encounter in the performance of his duties the most abandoned and desperate characters, at the expense of more or less of his clothing and the risk of his life. Very often, in walking his beat, he finds a man dead drunk—the law requires him to arrest all such persons, but how is he to get him to the Watch-house? He must either have assistance to carry him there, or he must employ a drayman, or a carter to transport him.

In cases like this, and they are very numerous, the policeman generally has to bear the expense of such assistance, and the aggregate of such outlays in the course of a year amounts to no inconsiderable sum. For the performance of the duties required of them, and which no one at all familiar with our police force can deny are well performed, they are paid the sum of thirty-three and a third dollars a month, or four hundred dollars a year. Out of this they are expected to maintain themselves and families, including all the expenses incident to householders, which most of them are. Now let any man who knows what it costs to support even a small family in a city like this, figure up the monthly expense of bread and butter, milk and vegetables, fuel and house-rent, and deduct the sum total from thirty-three and a third dollars, and the remainder will constitute exactly the profit resulting to our police force for their guardianship of the lives and persons and property of the fifty thousand inhabitants of this city.

This certainly is bad enough, but the statement is not so bad as the fact. Instead of being paid in cash, this sum is paid in city orders, which the Policemen are compelled to receive at par, but which neither the merchant, the grocer, the milkman or the landlord will take at all, and which can only be disposed of to the brokers at an average shave of twenty per cent.—This is a correct statement of the facts respecting the pay of our Police, and I submit, Mr. EDITOR, whether it be not shameful that a class of men to whom are entrusted such important duties, should be so miserably paid. Leaving to the Committee of the Common Council who have the subject in charge, the devisement of some means to remedy the evil, I sincerely hope that some prompt and energetic action may be had to increase or improve our Policemen's pay.

CITIZEN.

IOWA ELECTION.—The Congressional canvass in Iowa is going on in a lively way, and in a manner, we judge, satisfactory to the Republicans. In the Second District both candidates, Vandever and Leffingwell, are on the stump.—The Dubuque Times says of the former:

Mr. Vandever reached here yesterday, and will remain at home until Monday. He brings the most encouraging accounts from every county where he has spoken. The Republicans are active, wide awake, in the best of spirits, and full of life and hope. Their opponents, on the other hand, are disaffected among themselves, disappointed in their candidate, dispirited and careless. Our German Republican friends in the lower counties are warm and zealous in their support of Mr. Vandever.

A HARD HIT AT BOGUS DEMOCRACY.—John Mitchell, though a regular Democratic gun, sometimes makes an effective shot into his own camp. In a late number of his paper he says:

"We shall say, in plain English, that the National Democracy is and must be a power created and held together, not by any principle of action, but solely and entirely by money, by the expectation and smell of money, by the tradition and tender reminiscence of money—and that its sole use is to cover over and conceal a rent that yawns and shall yawn eternally. This being the case, the question arises, Does it pay at eighty millions? And if yes, then whom does it pay, and who pays it?"

THE RIGHTS OF WITNESSES.—The following item, brought by a late steamer, will no doubt interest witnesses and the legal profession on this side of the water:

The English Lords of the Bench decided at Westminister, about a month ago, that it was a principle of common law, that a counsellor, in questioning a witness, should address him in ordinary tones, and in language of respete, such as is employed by one gentleman in conversation with another; that such lawyer has no right to question the private business or moral character of a witness, any further than it is apparent they absolutely affect his reliability, or touch the case in hand; and that a witness is not bound to answer questions put to him in an insulting or annoying manner. If forced to answer by the Court he will have his remedy in an action for damages.

FOR THE GOLD REGIONS.—The steamer Moses Taylor sailed for Ashtwall, yesterday, with a full load of passengers, a large portion of whom are bound direct for Fraser's River. The departure of the steamer drew together a very large assembly to see their friends off, and the steamer's pier, as well as all the adjoining wharves, were covered by spectators, each of whom (not excepting the pickpockets) appeared to feel a particular interest in some one in the crowd.—She sailed away from her dock amid enthusiastic buzzes of the multitude, the firing of the steamer's guns, and the waving of handkerchiefs, which was kept up until the steamer was off the Jersey shore. The scene strongly reminded one of the departures of the first California adventurers in 1848-9. Lieut. Gillis and party, from Washington, go to Peru to observe the September solar eclipse, the Hon. Mr. Bokelew, Minister to Equador, C. K. Garrison and Joe Gibbs, were among the passengers.—N. Y Times, 6th.

GRAND FIREMAN'S PARADE, &c.—We are informed that the committee of the Agricultural Society propose to have a grand Fireman's parade and trial of Engines on the Fair ground, during the coming annual fair, and in order to arrange a plan for playing, propose to call a convention of firemen of the State, consisting of two delegates from each department contending for the prizes, said convention to be held at the Hyatt House, Janesville, on the 19th inst., at 2 P. M. The committee will distribute two hundred dollars in prizes to be played for. It is hoped that a plan will be proposed that will be acceptable to all. Companies from abroad will be received by our firemen. Editors in the State where fire departments are organized will please make a note of this.—Madison State Journal.

RAILROAD ACCIDENT.—The Courrier des Etats Unis of July 29 states in a correspondence received from Epernay, in France, that a railroad train caught fire, and an American lady and her child, a Mrs. Villier, were consumed by the flames. Mr. Villier, who traveled in the same car, saved his life by jumping out of a window but, by means of his fall on the road, broke his shoulder. After his recovery he claimed damages to the amount of 50,000 francs, which the court allowed him.

From the Baltimore Patriot of Aug. 7

The Cost of Democratic Rulers.

We gave a few days ago, a brief indication of what the people pay for the luxury of Democratic rulers. We desire now to make it a little more distinct. Let us recapitulate.

During the first year Mr. Buchanan spent the following sums in conducting the Government and rewarding friends:

1. Amount and estimated in the Secretary of Treasurer's report	$74,969,765 41
2. Post Office charges	14,0 6,000 00
3. Deficiencies provided for by the last session	5,918,151 30
Aggregate	$97,579,159 71

That sum is all gone, paid, consumed by Democratic maws, in great part wasted by incompetency and dishonesty. Which of our readers before had any conception of such an aggregate?

We showed that the appropriations for the one fiscal year, 1858-9, amounted to the following sums, viz:

Specific sums in bills approved	$67,667,782 75
Less deficiencies	8,918,151 30 = $58,749,631 45
Indefinite sums	3,853,9 7 22
Permanent appropriations	6,016,924 19
Former appropriations	16,656,553 35
Post Office appropriations	14,4 5,029 00
Aggregate for the service of the year 1858-9	$95,854,291 54

Thus, without allowing for any deficiency, the appropriations for Mr. Buchanan's second year exceed by about $1,000,000 the expenditures of the first year, the $9,000,000 nearly of the deficiency included. From bad to worse with a vengeance. The Administration try to shift the burden from themselves to Congress; Congress, they say, makes the appropriations, and of course we spend what they grant.

Why, of course Congress makes the appropriations, and it must make the appropriations which the incompetent and dishonest men of the Administration require to carry on the Government, or else stop certain parts of the Administration; and the expenses are so large because Democrats are in office, and are incompetent to discharge their duties with economy and honesty. With honest men—unlike the Secretary of War, and able men—unlike the Secretary of the Treasury and of the Post Office Department, the Government would not and ought not to cost more than half what it now costs. Fillmore administered it for about half.

But it is not true that Congress has forced appropriations and expenditures on the Government. On the contrary, the Government asked more than Congress gave.

Mr. Buchanan made the Kansas and Utah wars without the orders and against the protest of Congress.

Congress did not make Mr. Buchanan spend $9,000,000 more than Congress had authorized him to spend; yet such were the deficiencies provided for his extravagance.

Congress did not force him to ask a loan of $40,000,000 and add $1,800,000 of interest to the expenses.

Congress did not ask him to increase the cost of collecting the revenue to nearly $8,000,000.

Congress did not suggest to him the building of ten sloops-of war.

Congress did not propose the scandalous sums to be squandered in the civilization of the Indians—which means gratuitous and discretionary plunder of the Treasury to a vast amount.

On the other hand Mr. Buchanan asked for the mere collection of the Customs for one year.....$5,6 0,000 00
Congress gave him.....5,660,0 0 00

Less by.....$2,000,000 00
Mr. Buchanan asked for fortifications, &c.....$1,031,000 00
Congress gave only.....662,000 00

Less than asked by.....$1,369,000 00

Mr. Buchanan asked for five new regiments of the regular army. Congress refused them and gave him only two regiments of volunteers for eighteen months. A third one was voted, but for the protection and at the expense of Texas.

These are a few samples of the mode in which Congress is responsible for the expenditures.—We think Congress is too liberal, but that is no exculpation for the Administration. They will spend all that is given them, but incompetency and dishonesty, favoritism and peculation so pervade the present and the late Administrations, that the Government must stop if these enormous demands are not complied with.

While millions are asked for soldiers and ships, there is not a word said about a single harbor, or river, or lake in the United States, in any of the estimates. And the Democrats in the House refused not only any appropriation for those great and beneficent objects, but they also refused all appropriation for the great fortification system, which protects the great seats of our commercial wealth, and then give only $600,000, instead of the reasonable appropriation of $1,931,000 estimated for.

Now suppose the Government had gotten all it asked from Congress; and that Congress had added a reasonable amount for the protection of our lake and river commerce, what would the expenses of the Government have amounted to?

Way—add for collecting the customs the	$2,000,000
For fortifications	1,369,0 0
For three regiments at the rate of the existing army	6,000,000
For rivers and harbors	1,000,000
And we have	$7,769,0 0

That is to say—so far is it from being true that Congress—even this Democratic Congress—force expenditures on the President, the President asked for nearly $7,000,000 beyond what the Congress gave him. And adding to what he did ask only 1,500,000 for the protection of our rivers and harbors, which he had no right to to omit, and which he grossly neglected his duty in omitting, and we have a scale of expenditure astounding to behold.

The figures are eloquent.

Actually appropriated for the year 1858-59	$95,854,291 54
Sums asked and not granted	6,3 0, 00 00
Reasonable allowance for rivers and harbors	1,500,0 0 00
Whole cost for the year 1858-59	$103 559 291 09
For deficiency on the Buchanan side	8,0 0,000 00
Total	$111,554,291 54

And that sum represents a Democrat's ideas of an economical administration.

Morphy and Barnes had also played two consultation games against Staunton and Owen—Both games were won by Mr. Morphy and his ally. Mr. Morphy had also played a large number of games at odds, in all of which he had been victorious. Staunton had accepted Mr. Morphy's challenge. The match, at Mr. Staunton's request, is to be played after the Birmingham meeting, the stakes to be £500 a side. Mr. Morphy was about to commence a short match (the winner of the first seven games to win) with Mr. Lowenthal for £50. The result of this contest will be known by the arrival of the next steamer. Mr. Rousseau, Mr. Bryan and Mr. Edge were with Mr. Morphy in London.—Chess Monthly.

WHOLE FAMILY POISONED—DEATH OF TWO CHILDREN.—The Stillwater (Minnesota) Messenger of the 21 inst., says:

"The family of Mr. James Musgrave, residing in Holcomb's addition to the city—consisting of Mr. Musgrave, his wife and two children—were poisoned last Wednesday by eating a dish prepared of mushrooms, or toadstool, resulting in the death of the two children. The first death was that of a girl, aged seven years, who died on Friday; the next was a boy, aged ten, died on Saturday. The symptoms were not alarming at first, and medical aid was not called until about the time of the death of the little girl. The parents will probably recover from the effects of the poison."

A FRENCH VESSEL SENT BY THE STEAMSHIP ASIA.—On a late trip of the Cunard steamship Asia from New York to Liverpool, she experienced very thick weather from the time of leaving Sandy Hook until after passing Cape Race, so much as to render it necessary to keep the fog bell continually ringing. At midnight of Friday, the 25th June, she ran into and sunk the French ship Pauline. The boats of the Asia were immediately launched, and thirteen out of a crew of twenty persons rescued. A subscription was started, and eight hundred dollars collected, which was presented to them the day previous to the arrival of the Asia in Liverpool.

THE WINE OF 1858.—We have just received a letter from Segni, a remote interior town of the Papal dominions, in which it is stated that for the first time in many years the vines show no traces of oidium or grape disease, and that the vintage will be enormous. Indications of the same are to be found in The Independence Belge and the German foreign items for nearly all the continent. The traffic in cheap Hungarian wines, which has been very much stimulated of late years, and which draws its resources from a limitless supply of excellent varieties, rapidly becoming well known, will contribute to depress the price, so that there is a possibility of foreign wines again sinking to the old level.—Phil. Bulletin.

THE GREAT EASTERN.—The Portland Argus thinks that if this steamer is offered for sale she will be purchased by the Grand Trunk Company in London, and that she will be fitted up with all possible expedition, and be employed permanently on the line between Liverpool and Portland. If the steamship is sold, it must be at an enormous sacrifice; and there is no company in Europe so well situated to purchase and fit this monster vessel for immediate service, where there is a prospect of remunerative return, as the Grand Trunk Company.

From the N. Y. Tribune.

Blair's Defeat.

We announce with deep regret the deep regret the defeat of Francis P. Blair, Jr., at St. Louis. The contest has been a desperate one, for St. Louis is the focus of the vast and lucrative contracts for the Utah and other army service in the west and the money lately expended has doubtless been poured out like water to defeat Mr. Blair. The spectacle of a Republican and avowed Emancipationist, representing in Congress the second city in the Slave States, the emporium of the further West, was one which "National Democracy" could not regard without alarm; indeed, his election two years since caused a shudder of apprehension throughout the cotton region. It was felt and intimated that this thing must be stopped, or the slave power would soon be at an end. It has been stopped for the moment, by a desperate effort. Two years ago, during a Presidential canvass, the total vote of the District was 15,766; now it is swelled to 18,000. Mr. Blair's vote has not fallen off, but that of the "Nationals" has been largly increased. With all their money and exertions, we do not believe the slavery party could have beaten Mr. Blair with a single candidate: but running a National Democrat on one side of him and an American on the other, enabled them to prevail. He was in fact placed in the difficult position of a third party candidate, crowded between the Administration party on one side and the Opposition on the other. He must be a strong man with a very strong cause who succeeds in that predicament.

Mr. Blair is still in the vigor of early manhood, able, earnest and fearless; and this defeat is but an incident in what promises to be a long and bright career. It will give him a clearer and deeper knowledge of the dark power whose hostility he has provoked, and which will never more forget him, even though he should be tempted to forget himself. No true path lies entirely through sunshine; greatness is ripened amid difficulty, discouragement and disaster.—Happily, Time in this case is clearly on the side of the right. A heavy emigration is now pouring into Missouri, buying lands in the confident expectation of a rapid rise in their value, to which enhancement the disappearance of slavery is indispensable. St. Louis itself is rapidly growing in industry and trade; and the increase of its business is all credited and controlled by free labor. Slaves are disappearing from the entire northern half of the State; free labor is quietly but irrevocably supplanting them. Mr. Blair will return to Congress, and St. Louis will proudly claim him as her representative. Faith, patience and energy, will yet replace the wrong by the right. This reverse is but a morning cloud, which postpones but cannot prevent the coming of perfect day.

HORRIBLE MURDER AT LENA.—On Friday last as two little boys, sons of J. D Fowler and W. C. Goddard, were out in a thicket about a mile west of Lena, and fifty yards north of the travelled road, digging ginseng root, they discovered the remains of a man, badly decomposed—in fact almost entirely so. The flesh was all gone excepting inside of his boots, which were still on his feet. Hogs and dogs had made terrible work with the body. The skull was fifteen feet from the body, and was broken [and] showed unmistakable signs of violence. The pockets to his vest and pants were turned inside out, and rifled of their contents. His coat lay some 12 feet distant, and in one of the pockets of it was found a memorandum book and some other papers, by which it appears that his name was David H. Connell, formerly of Pine Village, Warren County, Indiana. This was all that could be found to identify him, and was the sum of all the evidence adduced before the Jury of Inquest summoned by Esq. Dodds. The Jury returned a verdict in accordance with those facts, that the name of the deceased was David H. Connell, and that he came to his death by violence at the hands of some person or persons unknown.

Since the finding of the Jury, other circumstances have come to light which it is possible may lead to the detection of the murderer or murderers, if proper means are used,—which facts, for obvious reasons, we for the present withhold. Mr. Connell resided the past year in Tafton, Grant Co., Wisconsin, and has relatives in Scale's Mound, Jo Daviess Co., as well as in Warren Co., Indiana. We trust that energetic measures will at once be taken to ferret this matter out and bring the guilty to justice. An adequate reward should be at once offered by the proper authorities.—Freeport (Ill.) Journal

THE CROPS.—We regret to learn that the wheat crop in this vicinity is very much injured. Several farmers have told us during the week, that their crop was hardly worth harvesting, though such instances we think are rare. It is the result mainly of the extreme hot and wet weather. In many pieces the growth of straw is immense, but the grain is deficient. It is affected with smut and rust, and in some instances by the fly and worm. The present season has been most prolific of insects—the earth and air seeming to teem with countless millions of them. Some have informed us that they would get from 15 to 20 bushels to the acre—a very respectable crop[least, but here not considered half a crop—All other crops are splendid.—Minnesota Free Press, August 4th.

THE "HARVEST HOME."—The farmers in this county are now busily engaged in gathering their wheat. The harvest, although not large, will be a fair average—the weather is very favorable for the harvesters, and upon every field may be heard their blithe song.

"They gather them in—the nodding plumes,
Of the yellow and bearded grain,
And the flash of the reapers' light blumes
Their march o'er the vanquished plain.
Anon they go with the sheed-drawn car—
The canning of modern laws,
And soon stoop to its clanking jar.
As it rolls its hungry jaws."

The Democrat of the Editorial Table

We don't mean to paraphrase upon Dr Holmes at all, though we will admit that in contra-distinction to his autocratic fiftiogue at the breakfast table, it did occur to us that the guests, and welcome ones they are ell, which crowd around our editorial board every day, find us sitting here among them in a democratic way, and that's how the title to this article was suggested. Our editorial table is a round one, so that those who eat salt with us shall not sit at the head, nor at the foot, neither at the middle; like the Knights of the Round Table they just pop down when it happens to be most convenient, and a right merrie companie they are too. Set here by our side, now, and let us introduce you to such as chance to be here to day. They don't all come at once, you know—some every day, some once a week; so that we cannot show you all of them at one sitting.

Here is the Madison Argus and Democrat; a nervous sharp fellow, who is a good friend and a bitter enemy. He is not bashful before folks.—If he offers you a dish, look out that it isn't seasoned with peppersauce.

Here is the Appleton Crescent, who happens to be here to-day, because it is Saturday. You ask him to just ring that tea bell by his side, and turn to one that he deafens you with the dinner gong.

Next is the State Journal, Madison. You will notice that he affects the classic style in the cut of his coat, observing great dignity. We have known him, though, to become so much excited as to outdo the b'hoys themselves.

Here comes the Milwaukee Free Democrat.—He talks very much; though at the while keeping a look for the fat things. He is your man for asking grace at the table.

Mr Honicon Argus, you are welcome. Now look out for the pepper and salt, and such table talk as shall keep you laughing. He can be sober too, on occasion; and is the Mercury of the company.

Here is the Milwaukee Banner and Volksfreund. We do not have much conversation with him, not knowing the language; but he is a good companion, nevertheless, and has a pleasant way of passing the lager beer and the lighter Rhine wine, which cheers without intoxicating.

Good day, Mr. Janesville Gazette. One of our old and staid friends, who never misses coming, and always has something good on hand. We have set you down for an early portrait in our editorial gallery.

Gentlemen, make room for the Young America of Delafield. He is a little chap, and does not come often; but he makes a ripple when he does, and we keep a high chair ready for him.

Here is the Patriot, of Madison. We need not introduce him. Pump is not in good spirits to-day; he has been unfortunate in his personal friendships, and regards the whole world of politics as a very fleeting show indeed.

Gentlemen, Mr. Sentinel, of Milwaukee. We like him because he is always posted up on the news of the day, can pull a strong oar, looks well in regimentals, is a good shot, polite to the ladies, and likes to break a lance with any of us.

Here is the News, also of Milwaukee. He is just back from the Fishing Banks; had baffling winds, which sent him all around the coast, but comes in now in good shape, and we are all glad to see him.

Next, is the Manitowoc Herald, a trim looking gentleman, who is proud of his locality, and just slightly jealous of his neighbors.

Here comes the Press, of Fond du Lac. A good jovial fellow, full of vivacious talk, and sensible too

Make a place for the Janesville Standard.—What's the matter, sir? Hope your being thrown from your horse did not seriously affect you. These are accidents which all sportsmen are liable to, and they must not mind them.—Take a little Monongahela; our friend old Buck drinks nothing else.

Good day, Mr. Wisconsin. Ladies, let us introduce you. You will like him; he is such a nice family man. A very pattern of a man, 'pon honor.

Here comes the Oshkosh Courier; quite staid and even tempered. None more welcome at this board.

Here is the Tribune, Manitowoc. An energetic fellow, with a sprinkle of fun. Pretends he don't know his neighbor of the Herald right here beside him. Shake hands, gentlemen, for though the world is large enough for you both, Manitowoc isn't—indeed it isn't

Now comes the Democrat, Watertown. One of our favorites, because, you see, he graduated with us. Make yourself at home, sir; but don't tell us anything more about the La Crosse company and those Watertown bonds: advise your folks to pay them and pocket the loss without grumbling.

This must do for to-day. Some time, we shall call out the rest.—Green Bay Advocate.

Correspondence of the N Y Tribune.

Planting Wheat in Hills.—Successful Experiment.

ROCHESTER, Fulton Co., Ind., July 27, '58.

Through the Tribune, as coming to notice of the greatest number of readers, I wish to present the following matter of vast importance in to the cultivation of wheat.

I planted last fall five rows of wheat, with spaces between the different rows of some three feet, two feet and eighteen inches; this was kept clean with the hoe, and the product is as follows: Average number of stalks from each seed, nearly 32; number of grains to the head, 72 to 100.

Thus if we count less than really grew, say 30 stalks from each grain of seed, and 72 the fewest number of grains found in any one head, we get at the rate of over 2,000 fold, and from that to 3,200, counting the highest yield. From the year 1845 to 1855 the average of wheat in this and parts of the adjoining counties, according to my record, was less than eight bushels to the acre, the very best being 33 bushels. Indian corn sown broadcast at the rate of from one to two bushels will yield a larger average, but when planted in our usual style produces from 80 to 100 bushels per acre.

My object in writing this is to bring the facts to the notice of agriculturists, and to induce as many as possible to try the experiment on as much land as they are willing to experiment with. I hope those wishing to test the matter will get the wheat in before the last of August. Lay off the ground two feet each way, and put four grains to each hill, and keep clean till next harvest. It must be put in early—no matter how soon after harvest. This will give thirty stalks to the square foot, and 104,089,600 grains to the acre; which, allowing 896,000 grains to the bushel, gives nearly 116 bushels to the acre. This estimate is a correct one, based upon actual facts, and, although it looks like a wild calculation, will, I think, prove so nearly correct as to help reform our present slovenly and extravagant mode of wheat culture. The quantity of seed required to plant an acre is only a trifle over five pounds, if put in as above described. Where my wheat stood in rows, three feet apart, when ripe the heads appeared nearly as thick together as in a field of broadcast wheat, and, instead of being from two to three inches in length, were from six to seven.

CHARLES BRACKETT.

AN ODD-PICKEN EPITAPH.—A remarkable outspoken one, from a monument in Horsleydown Church, in Cumberland, runs as follows:

"Here lie the bodies of Thomas Bond and Mary his wife. She was temperate, chaste and charitable; but she was proud, peevish and passionate. She was an affectionate wife and tender mother, but her husband and child, whom she loved, seldom saw her countenance without a disgusting frown, while she received visitors whom she despised with an endearing smile—Her behavior was discreet toward strangers, but imprudent in her family. Abroad her conduct was influenced by good breeding, but at home by ill temper."

And so the epitaph runs on to a considerable length, acknowledging the good qualities of the poor woman, but killing each by setting against it some peculiarly unamiable trait. I confess that my feeling is quite turned in her favor by the unmanly assault of her brother (the author of the inscription), has thus made upon the poor dead woman. If you cannot honestly say good of a human being on the gravestone, then say nothing at all.—Fraser's Magazine for July.

☞ The other day, a clerk in a store at Wheeling, Va., discovered in a coffee sack, a note of the denomination of one thousand dollars, on the Royal Bank of Brazil, a piece of silver coin, and twelve gold pieces of Brazilian coinage. The treasure had evidently been placed in the coffee sack for safe keeping. The lucky clerk robs the plunder.

Success of the Atlantic Telegraph.

The N. Y. Tribune of Friday has the following singularly beautiful and appropriate remarks on the successful submerging of the Atlantic cable:

Man marks the earth with ruin; his control
Stops with the shore

So said the bitterly apostrophizing poet, giving vent to his misanthropy, while describing the ocean in noble lyric. The scope, splendor and wrath of the sea are therein made comparatively most of in connection with man. But this ecstatic utterance of the most passionate of poets, who painted the sea as it was never painted before, and never will be again, loses some of its biting force in view of the stupendous and unequalled achievement which we have this day to record.

The Submarine Cable is laid!

Europe and America are knit together by the electric telegraph!

It is not possible to grasp the wondrous beauty and magnitude of this triumph. The ocean has defied man, now man defies the ocean, in so far as the subtle carriage of thought is involved.—Down, down to its lowest deep—but late deemed fathomless—go the magic wires upon which play the harmonies of whole peoples. Under the home of the leviathans clustered in obscurity and mystery, where no human eye can reach, and where early fairies placed the water gods, run these cunning devices by which nation speaks to nation, continent to continent, in the lightnings of the heavens. The old theory of distances, severances and physical possibilities seems destroyed, to be replaced by new combinations and conceptions. The seal's storm, sucking down argosies and armadas, are now compensated for by the prowess which sizes the deep and uses it for human purposes, declaiming in the language of nature itself—silent and sublime.

Each man must feel freer in the accession of so much power. What the earlier theologies and romantic writings attributed to the functions of supernatural being!—the genii—the Olympians—the force to strike off the dead drag of the flesh, and fly through ether to the uttermost ends of the earth, or to course the under waters of the ocean with the haste of light itself—is here thrust before the dazzled eyes of this age and all the nations, in the stern, fierce palpability of human triumph—of the work of man, who, advancing on chaos and the dark, has battled with the Titanic forces, and come off victor.

A PICKPOCKET'S EXPLANATION.—"When I saw you go into the banking house, I backed myself at two to one that I should receive you of your money. When I saw you come out with the money in your left coat-tail, instead of buttoned up in a breast-pocket, the odds rose five to one. I knew it was in your left coat-tail, because you kept your hand there."

"And," I said impatiently, "I never took it out again; that I can swear to."

"You did not take it out for a long time Sir," replied Mr. Daddles, applauding moderately; "you gave me a great deal of anxiety, I must confess, but you did take it out at last."

"Where?" cried I, "where?" If I did before I got home I'll be hanged!"

"Don't say that, sir," replied my new acquaintance, rather severely; "don't use an expression of that kind, whatever you do. You stopped at a print-shop on the west side of Temple bar, and then my last hope began to expire, for a few steps more would have taken you into the Spider's territory, and my chances would have vanished."

"Why did you not cut the bottom of my pocket?" I asked intensely interested.

"Because you would have missed the weight of the coin, explained Mr. Daddles. "Nothing remained for me but to try the fly dodge."

"A fly, Mr. Daddles! Explain yourself. I saw no fly."

"You felt it, though, Mr. Brown, if you remember, upon your left cheek, and you took your hand out of your pocket to remove it."

"I see it all now."

"That was it," assented Mr. Thomas Daddles, in conclusion, "and a very neat thing it was, though I say it."—Dickens's Household Words.

G. SIMMONDS,
SOLE PROPRIETOR AND MANUFACTURER OF
PURE OHIO
Catawba Brandy.
THIS Brandy has been manufactured for several years from the pure juice of the Catawba Grape, thus affording additional proof of the progress of American enterprise and industry, and of our ability to produce articles at home, equal to those made by any other nation.
The Ohio Catawba Brandy, not only equals but excels the best imported Brandies, in purity and flavor. It is in fact the best Brandy known. This statement is fully corroborated by the certificates of our most distinguished and scientific chemists.
The want of pure brandy has long been felt in this country, and the introduction of an article of such purity as to supersede the sale and use of those vile compounds bitherto sold under the name of Brandy, can only be regarded a great public good. The Catawba Brandy possesses all the good qualities claimed for the best imported Brandy, and is of perfect purity and superior flavor, and a sovereign and sure remedy for

MORE TO BE ADMIRED THAN THE RICHEST DIADEM
EVER
Worn by Kings or Emperors.

WHAT? WHY A BEAUTIFUL HEAD OF HAIR.

Because it is the ornament God Himself provided for all our race. Reader, although the rose may bloom ever so brightly on the glowing cheek, the eye be ever so sparkling, the teeth be like the pearl, the form like the birch of the covering, or the hair be snarled and shriveled, harsh and dry, or worse still, if sprinkled with gray, nature will do more than all other charms. Prof. Wood's Hair Restorative, if used two or three times a week, will restore and permanently secure to all such an ornament. Read the following and judge. The writer of the first is the celebrated Pianist, Sigismund Thalberg.

DR. WOOD:— NEW YORK, April 19th, 1858.

Dear Sir: Permit me to express to you the obligation I am under for the entire restoration of my hair to its original color. About the time of my arrival in the United States it was rapidly becoming gray, but upon the application of your Hair Restorative, it soon recovered its former hue. I consider your Hair Restorative as a very wonderful invention—quite efficacious as well as agreeable. I am, dear sir, yours truly,

S. THALBERG.

"Dryden'ar Gwyl'edydet."

Welsh Newspaper Office, } 119 Nassau st., April 12, 1858. }

Prof. O. J. Wood—Dear Sir: Some months or six weeks ago I received a bottle of your Hair Restorative and gave it to my wife, who concluded to try it on her hair, little thinking at the time that it would restore the gray hair to its original color; but to her, as well as my surprise, after a few weeks' trial it has performed that wonderful effect by turning all the gray hair back to brown, and thereby adding beautifying and thickening the hair. I strongly recommend the above Restorative to all persons in want of such a change in their hair.

CHARLES CARDEW.

New York, July 25, 1857.

Prof. O. J. Wood: With confidence do I recommend your Hair Restorative, as being a most efficacious article I ever saw. Since using your Hair restorative my hair is of whiskers, which were almost white, have gradually grown dark; and I now feel confidence in the above. Several applications will restore them to their natural color. It has also relieved me of all dandruff and unpleasant itching, so common among persons who perspire freely.

J. D. HOSS.

Prof. Wood—About two years ago my hair commenced falling off and turning gray; I was fast becoming bald, and had tried many Remedies to no effect. I commenced using your Restorative in January last. A few applications restored my hair firmly. It began to fill up, grew out, and turned back to its former color, black. At this time it is fully restored to its original color, health and appearance, and I cheerfully recommend its use to all.

J. D. HOSS.

Chicago, Ill., May 1, 1857.

The Restorative is put up in bottles of 8 sizes, viz: large, medium and small; the small holds ½ a pint, and retails for one dollar per bottle; the medium holds at least 20 per cent more in proportion than the small, retails for two dollars per bottle; the large holds a quart, 40 per cent more in proportion, and retails for $5.
